

Remuneration policy:

The General Assembly elects from among its members the board members who have made themselves available for this role. Appointments and terms of office are determined in the General Assembly. Board members and General Assembly members do not receive any remuneration or attendance fees. Employees receive their salary on the basis of the employment contract. In addition, there is no remuneration policy for employees.